

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

In re:

Case No. 14-50542

JAWAD A. JAWAD,

Chapter 7

Debtor.

Judge Thomas J. Tucker

_____/

ORDER DISMISSING CASE

On June 28, 2014, the Court entered an order entitled “Order Regarding Apparent Improper Joinder of Debtors” (Docket # 9, the “June 28 Order”), which provided, in relevant part:

Therefore, no later than 7 days after the entry of this Order, the individual Debtor in this case must file an amended bankruptcy petition that removes all reference to any limited liability company, so that it is clear that this entity has not filed bankruptcy in this case. . . .

Further, no later than 7 days after the entry of this Order, Debtor must serve on all creditors: (1) a copy of this Order; (2) a copy of the amended petition; and (3) a notice stating that the only debtor in this case is the individual. Debtor then must file a proof of such service, also no later than 7 days after the entry of this Order.

If Debtor does not timely comply with all of the above requirements, the Court will dismiss this case, without further notice or hearing.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

(Docket # 9 (footnote omitted).)

Debtor has failed to comply with the June 28 Order. The document Debtor filed on July 3, 2014, at Docket # 11, as part of his attempt to comply, was stricken by order of the Court on the same day, because the document filed does not match the docket text (see Docket # 14). And Debtor has done nothing to refile the stricken document, while using the correct docket text. In addition, the certificate of service that Debtor filed on July 3, 2014, at Docket # 12 is not in the proper form, because it says that the Debtor's counsel "will" serve the referenced papers on July 3, 2014, not that the service had actually been done. So this fails to actually certify that any service was done.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that this bankruptcy case is dismissed.
